

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: My throat is feeling sore.

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Do you ever get the flu? A sore throat? A cough?
- What do you do to feel better?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about common health problems.
- I can use and pronounce the silent ue.
- I can identify key information in a short audio clip.

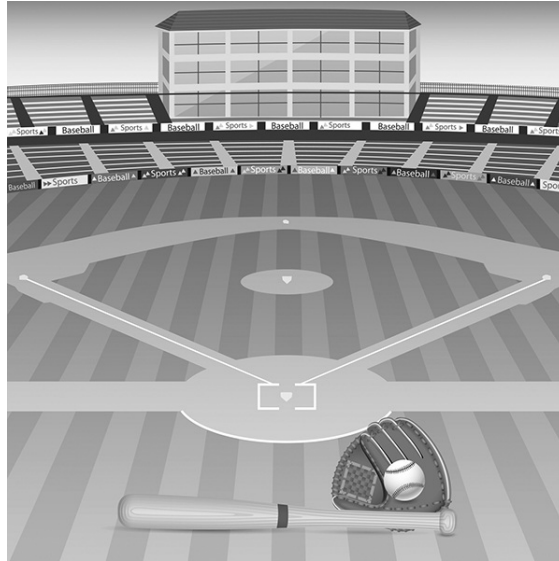

Let's Explore!

Peter and Sally chat after the game at a local hangout. Listen to their dialogue*.

* A "hangout" is a casual place where people can get together.

 In the word "dialogue", the -gue is pronounced as g only.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Want some of my dessert?
Sally: Wow, you sound terrible! What's wrong with your voice?
Peter: Do I sound that bad?
Sally: I can hardly understand you. You must have lost your voice from all the cheering at the baseball game.
Peter: It was exciting when the bases were loaded.
Sally: Do you feel alright? You weren't looking too well after the ninth inning.
Peter: Maybe a little fatigued. My throat's a bit sore too.
Sally: Hmm. Maybe you're coming down with something.
Peter: Don't get me wrong, I always like to see the Red Sox win but it was a great hit by Toronto, nonetheless.
Sally: I suppose but you shouldn't say that too loudly in this place. You'll sound like a traitor.
Peter: Ha ha ... I was thinking about joining the local baseball league.
Sally: That's a great idea. Do you need some water?
Peter: I'm OK but I should stop talking so much.
Sally: Alright then ... pass me some of that lemon meringue pie!

Let's Practice!

How do you pronounce the -gue sound? Let's find out!

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. fatigue.
2. league.
3. meringue.
4. Maybe a little fatigued. My throat's a bit sore too.
5. I was thinking about joining the local baseball league.
6. Alright then ... pass me some of that lemon meringue pie!

Let's Practice!

Are you feeling OK?

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

coming down / lost your voice / What's wrong / throat / feel / understand

1. _____ with your voice?
2. Maybe you're _____ with something.
3. Do you _____ alright?
4. My _____ is a bit sore too.
5. I can hardly _____ you.
6. You must have _____ from all that cheering at the baseball game.

Extension Activity

Strike 1! Strike 2! Strike 3! Time for baseball. Let's do some research.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Research baseball in your city or country. Is it or was it a popular sport? Write 1 sentence.
- Is there a league? How many teams play in the league? Write 2 sentences.
- What types of injuries or health problems do you think baseball players get? Write 2 sentences.
- Present the information to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I complete research on a sport.

☐ ☐

I write 2 sentences about baseball leagues.

☐ ☐

I write about the health problems of baseball players.

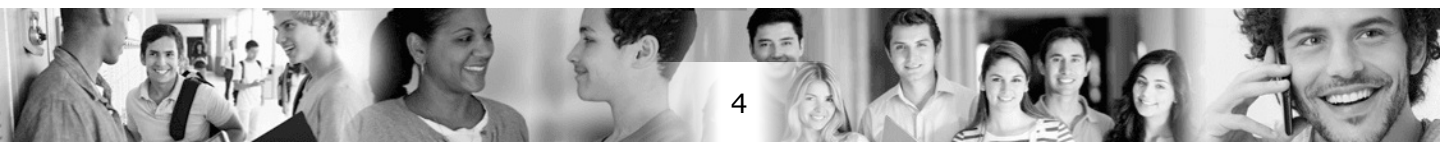

☐ ☐

I present the information to a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- nonetheless (adverb): in spite of what has just been said e.g. Don't get me wrong, I always like to see the Red Sox win but it was a great hit by Toronto, nonetheless.
- inning (noun): one of the nine parts of a game in which each team bats e.g. You weren't looking too well after the ninth inning.
- traitor (noun): a person who is not loyal to his or her own country, friends, or team e.g. You'll sound like a traitor.
- league (noun): a group of sports teams that play against each other e.g. I was thinking about joining the local baseball league.
- meringue (noun): sweet, whipped egg whites used as a topping for a dessert e.g. Alright then ... pass me some of that lemon meringue pie!
- coming down with (expression): feeling the start of a sickness
e.g. Maybe you're coming down with something.

Learning Points

Past tense and Past Continuous tense

You use the Past Continuous tense to talk about something that was happening at a particular time in the past.

You often use the Past Continuous tense together with the Simple Past tense.

The Past Continuous talks about a longer 'background' action.

The Simple Past talks about a shorter event that happened in the middle of, or interrupted, the longer event.

You use the words when and while before the longer action.

Examples:

- Susan called me while I was making dinner.
- Dave wrote his essay while watching TV.

Silent UE

Some letter combinations in the English language are silent. For example, when "ue" is after a "g" or a "q" at the end of a word, it is usually silent.

When a word ends with -gue, it makes a "g" sound.

For example:

- dialogue
- league
- fatigue

When a word ends with -que, it makes a "k" sound.

For example:

- antique
- bisque
- unique

Sometimes a "ue" combination is silent in the middle of a word.

For example:

- vaguely
- uniqueness
- antiqueness

Examples:

- I'm feeling a little fatigued.
- I was thinking about joining the local baseball league.

