

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Take me out to the ball game!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people and places in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you know how to play baseball?
- Do you like the game? Do you want to go watch a game?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about sports.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

What inning is it now?

* An "inning" is one of the nine periods of a game in which each team has a turn with the bat.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Ahhh ... Fenway Park ... I love it. There is so much American baseball history here.
- Sally: Part of the tradition is having beer.
- Peter: Sounds good. The last time I was here, I watched an incredible game.
- Sally: Did you cheer a lot?
- Peter: Absolutely. I was jumping up and down most of time and didn't even sit down. The scores were so close up to the final innings. Everyone was rooting for the Red Sox when the next batter came up.
- Sally: Wow! How exciting!
- Peter: Oh, it was tense. I was screaming when they hit a home run and spilled half my beer.
- Sally: So, in the last inning here, when the bases were loaded, the batter was trying to hit a home run.
- Peter: Very good. It's the same now. If the next Toronto batter gets a good hit, then all 4 players will score.
- Sally: So, let's hope they hit a pop fly we can catch.

Let's Practice!

How many runs will the home team score?

Instructions: Select the verbs in Simple Past tense in the sentence.

1. The last time I was here, I watched an incredible game.
2. I jumped up when they hit a home run.
3. After the players loaded the bases, the batter tried to hit a home run.

Let's Practice!

Let's hear it for the hometown team.

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. Did you cheering a lot?
2. I split half of my beer when they scored a home run.
3. In the last inning, the bases wear loaded.

Extension Activity

Let's find out who was the American Major League Baseball Champion last year.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- The championship for American Major League Baseball is called the World Series. Do research on last year's World Series champion.
- Find information to answer the following questions:
 - What team was the champion last year?
 - Who was the other team?
 - What was the winning score in the series? ____ Games - ____ Games
- Write sentences to answer the above questions. Be sure to use the Past tense.
- Share your knowledge with your partner by reading your sentences.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I do research on Major League Baseball.

☐ ☐

I locate specific information to answer questions.

☐ ☐

I write complete statements from my research.

☐ ☐

I read my sentences to my partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to cheer (verb): to help a team or player do better by shouting positive comments
e.g. Peter lost his voice because he cheered a lot for his team.
- absolutely (adverb): completely or totally e.g. Peter absolutely cheers for the whole game.
- to root for (verb): to cheer on your team
e.g. We have to root for our team.
- home run (noun): when a player hits a ball, then runs around the bases to score a point e.g. The bases are loaded now, so I hope this batter hits a home run.
- tense (adjective): nervous or not able to relax
e.g. All the fans are tense because it's the last inning and the scores are so close.
- batter (noun): the player on the team who comes up to bat (hit the ball) e.g. If this batter hits a home run, we will get at least one point.
- to load (the bases) (verb): to put a player on all 3 of the bases
e.g. When the bases were loaded, the batter tried to hit a home run.

Learning Points

Past Tense and Past Continuous tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you as ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb -ing to verbs. Some verbs need a change to the last letter to add -ing.

Present	Past	Past Continuous
am/is/are	was/were	-----
watch	watched	was/were watching
jump	jumped	was/were jumping
root	rooted	was/were rooting
hit	hit	was/were hitting
try	tried	was/were trying
spill	spilled	was/were spilling

Examples:

- Peter: The last time I was here, I watched an incredible game.
- Peter: The crowd was cheering when Boston won that big game!

Learning Points

Talking About Baseball

Every sport has specific language and terms for the place, the equipment and the game.

Let's look at the following terms for baseball.

baseball park: the stadium or park where the game is played

bat: a large wooden stick used to hit the ball

glove: a large leather glove used to catch the ball inning: one round in which each team gets a turn to bat the ball and score while the other team catches base: 3 separate squares around the field that a player must run to and touch with his foot home run: when a player hits a ball hard and has enough time to run around all 3 bases

back to the home plate

Examples:

- If the next Toronto batter hits a home run, then all 4 players will score.

