Let's Start!

What's a monument all about?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people and places in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you know of any war memorials or monuments in our city?
- How much of our city's history do you know?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and attractions in a city.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

Peter and Sally explore more in the heart of Boston.

* The "heart" of the city usually refers to the center where all the commerce and entertainment take place.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Even though I grew up here, I didn't see some of these sights until today.
- Peter: There sure is a lot to see here in Boston. And I'm glad we rented bicycles for the day.
- Sally: It's good exercise. I was going to ask you - did you play baseball as a kid?
- Peter: I played baseball all through grade school. How about you?
- Sally: Oh, no. I was always playing around on the computer when other kids played outside.
- Peter: Hey, here we are at Bunker Hill Monument. Before the revolution, the American colonists were trying to settle this land when the British attacked.
- Sally: Did you like history in school?
- Peter: My grandparents weren't born in the US, but they wanted me to learn the history of the country. Let's climb the steps. The view from the top is worth it.
- Sally: I did a lot of yoga last month, so my legs are stronger.

Let's Practice!

Peter and Sally remember what they did in Boston as children.

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Learning Points

Past Tense and Past Continuous tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished.

You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb -ing to verbs. Some verbs need a change to the last letter to add -ing.

Present	Past	Past Continuous
grow	grew	was/were growing
rent	rented	was/were renting
play	played	was/were playing tell	told	was/were telling
try	tried	was/were trying
see	saw	-----
attack	attacked	was/were attacking

Examples:

- Peter: I played baseball all through grade school. How about you?
- Sally: I wasn't interested in sports much. I was always playing around on the computer.
