

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

There is only so much time in a day!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Are there attractions in your city you never saw before?
- Is there a marathon race in your city or town?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and attractions in a city.
- I can ask and report on things, actions, events or people.
- I can make and respond to requests.

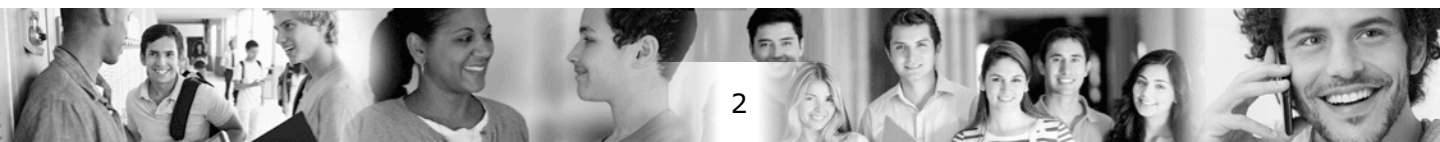

Let's Explore!

What else do Sally and Peter have time for?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Hey, Peter. As a sports fan, you know this city is famous for the Boston Marathon, right?
- Peter: I do. I want to run in it, but I gotta train really hard to qualify.
- Sally: I can't wait to see the race next April. It excites me to see the world's best runners come together to run the full marathon.
- Peter: Yeah, all 35,000 of them converge here for the 26.2-mile race, including the elite Kenyans.
- Sally: I have an idea. You start training now. Then you sign up for the race next spring.
- Peter: I ... don't think so. Could we come together to cheer on the runners instead?
- Sally: Sure! Hey, I'd like to ride down to Castle Island Park. The seaside is so pretty down there.
- Peter: It sure is, but I'm afraid it's getting late. We still need to make it back to Cambridge.
- Sally: Is it OK if we have dinner first though?

Let's Practice!

Do you want to run a marathon?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Choose the correct answer.

1. How long is a full marathon?

- ☐ It can be 10 miles or 20 miles.
- ☐ It's 26.2 miles.
- ☐ It's 26.2 km.

2. What type of runners run in the Boston Marathon?

- ☐ New runners.
- ☐ Leisure runners.
- ☐ The best runners in the world.

3. When does the Boston Marathon take place?

- ☐ In April
- ☐ In the summer
- ☐ It changes

4. What does Peter think about joining the Boston Marathon?

- ☐ It would be easy.
- ☐ It would take a little training.
- ☐ He doesn't want to do it.

Let's Practice!

I have a request to make.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: I'd like to, Is it OK, Could we.

1. _____ come together to cheer on the runners instead?
2. Hey, _____ ride down to Castle Island Park.
3. _____ if we have dinner first though?

Extension Activity

Research the Boston Marathon on the Internet, and learn more about it.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Research for news on the Internet for Boston Marathon 2013. Write one sentence on what happened.
- Go to the website for the Boston Athletic Association and do research on the Boston Marathon.
- Look for the following information:
 - What day does registration open?
 - What's the race date for this year?
 - Look up the Course Map. Where does the race begin, and where does it end?
 - Who was the winner last year? What country was he from? What was his winning time?
- Write 5 sentences with your information.
- Tell your partner about the marathon in English.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I do research on news.

☐ ☐

I research for specific information about an event.

☐ ☐

I write complete statements on details for an event.

☐ ☐

I tell my partner in English information about an event.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- marathon (noun): a running race that is 26.2 miles long e.g. The Boston Marathon is the most famous one in the world.
- to qualify (verb): to have the necessary skills required to enter a competition or to do a job e.g. To qualify for the Boston Marathon, you have to run a fast time for your age.
- to excite (verb): to be filled with excitement or emotional energy e.g. It excites me to see so many international runners racing together.
- to converge (verb): to come from various directions and meet together in one place e.g. The best runners in the world converge in Boston to run the marathon.
- elite (adjective): the best in their sport or job
e.g. Runners from Kenya are considered elite in the world.
- It's getting late (expression): what you say when it is nearing the end of the day e.g. It's getting late, so we should go home.
- seaside (noun): the area along the edge of the sea
e.g. I love taking bike rides along the seaside.

Learning Points

Making and Responding to Requests

It's important to be polite when you ask for something or respond to requests.

You can make a request by using:

- Can you ...?
- Could you ... ?
- Would you ... ?
- Do you mind ... ?
- I'd like to ...

Making a Request:

- Could we come together to watch the marathon?
- I'd like to ride down to Castle Island Park.
- Is it OK if we have dinner before going home?

Responding to a Request:

- Sure, no problem.
- Yes, I'd love to!

