

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's go to Boston. How do we get there?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you know about the city of Boston?
- Do you know where it is? Do you know how old it is?

Can Do Statements

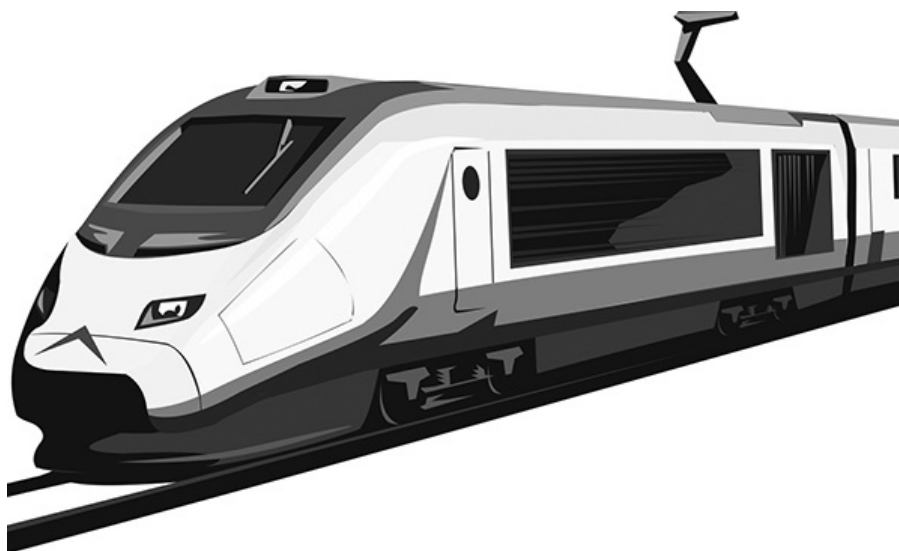

- I can talk about travel and transportation.
- I can ask for, give and respond to advice.
- I can make and respond to requests.

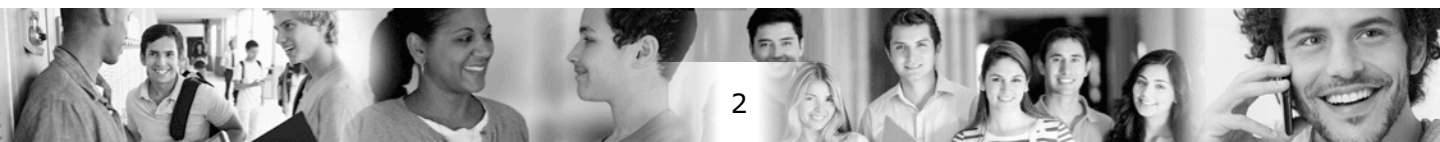

Let's Explore!

Let's go into the city for the day.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Hey, Peter, I was wondering if you'd feel like going to Boston for the day.
- Peter: Sure, I'd love to bum around with you. The last time I ventured into the city was months ago.
- Sally: We shouldn't drive because it would be tough to find a parking space. Should we take the highway bus?
- Peter: The bus actually takes a long time if the traffic is backed up. It would be advisable to take the commuter train.
- Sally: Brilliant. The ride is more comfortable and more scenic. Do you think you could check the schedule?
- Peter: Yes, I have the app on my phone. Ahhhh ... do you mind taking the next train? The red line pulls in at 11 a.m. Would you like to have lunch after we arrive?
- Sally: For sure. I'll be ready for fish & chips. After lunch, we ought to rent bikes to get around easily.
- Peter: That's true.

Let's Practice!

How do Peter and Sally get to Boston?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Choose the correct answer.

1. How long would Sally like to spend in Boston?

- ☐ Months
- ☐ The day
- ☐ A long time

2. What kind of transportation do Sally and Peter decide to take to get to Boston?

- ☐ The highway
- ☐ The bus
- ☐ The commuter train

Let's Practice!

I have a request to make.

Instructions: Select the expressions in the sentence for making and accepting requests.

1. Peter: I was wondering if you'd like to go to Boston for the day.

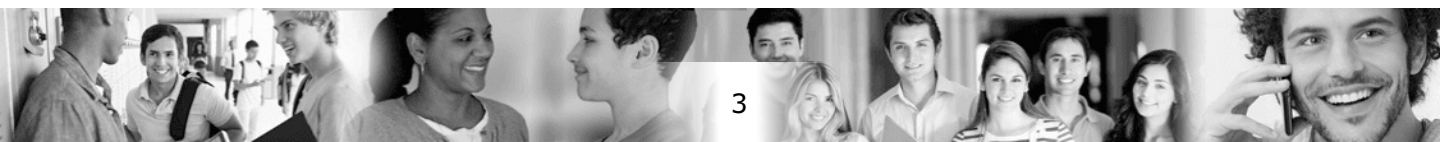

Sally: Sure, I'd love to hang out with you.

2. Sally: Do you think you could check the schedule?

Peter: Certainly, I have the app on my phone.

3. Peter: Would you like to have lunch after we arrive?

Sally: For sure. I'll be ready to eat then.

Extension Activity

Research public transportation in your city.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Provide information about public transportation for commuters available from your city to one suburb. Research on the Internet if you don't know.
- Fill in the table below.
- Write a sentence giving advice on which form of transportation you think is the best from the suburb to the city.
- Share your advice with your partner. Do they think the same or differently?

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I research about commuter transportation in my city.

☐ ☐

I organize my information in a table.

☐ ☐

I write a statement giving advice on the best form of commuter transportation.

☐ ☐

I share my advice with my partner in English and listen to their opinion.

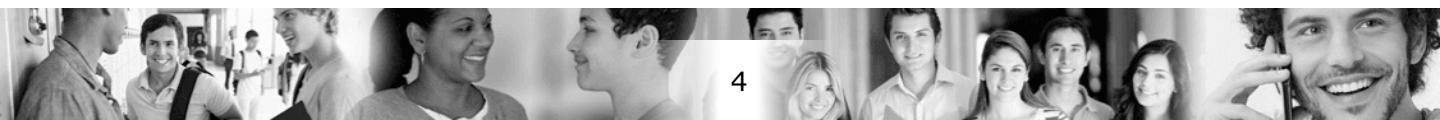

☐ ☐

City:Forms of transportation	Cost	Time from suburb to city	Comfort

Target Words

- scenic (adjective): describing nice scenery or views
e.g. The train route is much more scenic than the highway.
- to bum around (verb): to go to various places with a friend; to hang out e.g. Peter wants to bum around Boston for the day with Sally.
- to venture (verb): to go to some place new or unfamiliar e.g. Peter ventured into Boston months ago.
- brilliant (adjective): smart; inspired
e.g. It's brilliant to take the train into the city instead of driving.
- backed up (adjective): describes the situation when there is a long line of people or cars e.g. There are often cars backed up on the highway.
- to pull in (verb): to drive in and stop, often referring to a gas station or a roadside store e.g. Let's pull into the convenience store and get a drink.
- advisable (adjective): good advice; a good idea
e.g. It would be advisable to take the faster commuter train into the city.

Learning Points

Giving Advice

You can use the modals should and could before the verb to give advice.

We also use some other phrases for giving advice, such as:

It would be advisable to + verb ...

You ought to + verb ...

Examples:

- We shouldn't drive because it would be tough to find a parking space.
- We could take the bus.
- It would be advisable to take the commuter train.
- We ought to rent bikes to get around more easily.

Making and Responding to Requests

It's important to be polite when you ask for something or respond to requests.

You can make a request by using:

- Can you ... ?
- Could you ... ?
- Will you ... ?
- Would you like to verb ... ?
- Would you mind ... ? / Do you mind ... ?
- I was wondering if ...
- Do you think you could verb ... ?

Making a Request:

- I was wondering if you'd like to go to Boston for the day.
- Do you think you could check the train schedule?
- Do you mind taking the next train?
- Would you like to have lunch after we arrive?

Responding to a Request:

- For sure.
- Sure, I'd love to.
- Yeah, no problem.

