Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like going on road trips overnight?
- Where would you like to go for a road trip near your city?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and attractions in a city.
- I can give advice, ask for permission, or make requests.
- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa catches up with Sally over coffee.

* You "catch up" with a friend to update them on what happened in your lives recently.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hey, Sally.

Sally: Hi, Vanessa. I was wondering if we could have coffee.

Vanessa: Sure. Let's bum around for a morning.

Sally: Yeah. I'd like to tell you about my day in Boston with Peter.

Vanessa: Is it OK if we go to my favorite coffee bar?

Sally: No problem.

Vanessa: So, tell me about your road trip.

Sally: Oh, we crammed in a lot. We took the commuter train, went to a baseball game ...

Vanessa: You went to a baseball game?

Sally: Yeah, I sat through all the innings, rooted for our home team, and watched them hit some home runs.

Vanessa: What were you doing when Peter cheered his lungs out?

Sally: I was drinking my beer.

Vanessa: Did you venture down to the seaside?

Sally: Yup. We rode up all the hills on bikes, through the zoo and down to Castle Island Park.

Vanessa: It sounds like you had an exciting day.

Sally: You should join us in watching the marathon next spring.

Vanessa: Sounds good to me.

Let's Practice!

There are some interesting spots in Boston.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer.

1. Where did Sally agree to have coffee?

- ☐ She wondered about coffee
- ☐ At the baseball game
- ☐ At Vanessa's favorite coffee bar

3. Where did Sally and Peter ride bikes to?

- ☐ To the marathon
- ☐ To their home
- ☐ To the zoo and the seaside

2. Where did Sally and Peter venture to?

- ☐ To the seaside
- ☐ To the shopping mall
- ☐ To the marathon

Let's Practice!

I have a request to make.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: like, should, if, wondering.

1. I was _____ if we could have coffee.
2. I'd _____ to tell you about my day in Boston with Peter.
3. Is it OK _____ we go to my favorite coffee bar?
4. You _____ join us to watch the marathon next spring.

Extension Activity

Plan a road trip with your partner.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Plan a road trip with your partner to another interesting city.
- Write down 3 places you can go to. Ask your partner to do the same. Make requests in English to each other.
- Write a dialogue together about the road trip.
- Talk about where you went and what you did. Be sure to use Past tense verbs.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

- marathon (noun): a running race that's 26.2 miles long e.g. Sally wants Vanessa to join her to watch the marathon next spring.

Learning Points

Making and Responding to Requests and Asking for Advice / Permission

Making and Responding to Requests

When you make and respond to requests, remember to be polite!

Making Requests	Responding to Requests
Would you ... ? I'd like to ... Would you mind (if) ... ? Would ... be okay? I was wondering if ... Could you ... ? Do you think you could ... ? Is there any chance you could ... ?	Sure, I'll ... Sure, I'd be glad to ... No, not at all. Certainly. Yes, of course. I'll see what I can do. I don't mind at all. Of course we can ... No problem.

Examples:

- Sally: I was wondering if we could have coffee.
Vanessa: Of course we can.
- Vanessa: Do you mind if we go to my favorite espresso bar?
Sally: Sure. No problem.

Asking for Advice

You can use should when asking for advice. You can also use the question What should I do? to ask for advice.

Examples:

- What should I do today?
- What should I bring to the party?
- How should I prepare for my interview?

Asking for Permission

When you ask for permission, you often use a modal like can, may, could or would. You can also ask a Yes or No question like "Is it OK if ... ?" or "Do you mind ... ?" Here are some ways to ask for and give permission.

Examples:

- Can I use this pen?
- Could I work from home tomorrow?

Learning Points

- May I use your washroom?
- Is it OK if I leave early today?
- Do you mind if I take my lunch break before the meeting?

Past Tense and Past Continuous tense

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about events that are finished. You use the Past Continuous to talk about events or an action that was happening at a time in the past.

Simple Past tense verbs can be regular or irregular.

Regular verbs end in -ed or -ied.

Irregular verbs change in different ways.

For questions in the past, you use the auxiliary did followed by the verb in the base form, like Did you ask ... ?

Did is the past form of to do.

For Past Continuous, we add was/were + verb -ing to verbs.

Some verbs need a change to the last letter to add.

Present tense	Past tense	Present Continuous tense
cram	crammed	was/were cramming
rent	rented	was/were renting
go	went	was/were going
sit	sat	was/were sitting
ride	rode	was/were riding
cheer	cheered	was/were cheering

Examples:

- I sat through all the innings, rooted for our home team, and watched them hit some home runs.
- We rode up all the hills and ventured down to the seaside.
- I was drinking my beer when Peter cheered his lungs out.
